Educational portal

Easy365

Charles University offers educational portal Easy365 for efficient use of Microsoft 365 services. It contains manuals and short articles for specific applications.

You can find information either by selecting individual areas or by searching specific product. Access to the eLearning portal requires login.

Manuals

Information included in these manuals is based on university-wide tenant. If you have other specifications and you have not found information you need, please get in touch with IT support of your faculty/unit.

Frequently asked Questions

Here you can find answers to some of the most common question with regards to Miscrosoft 365 tenant.